Program Approval

Introduction

This agenda item presents one single subject matter program submitted by an institution of higher education for approval.

Background

The Commission regularly receives recommendations for program approval from single subject matter review panels. These panels of subject matter experts review all program documentation and make an informed determination whether the program meets the standards common to all subject matter programs and also the content specific subject matter standards. The content specific subject matter standards are closely aligned to the K-12 academic content standards. These subject matter programs are usually undergraduate courses of study completed before candidates begin teacher preparation programs. However, the two programs may be completed concurrently.

Subject Matter Program Review Procedures

Following are the general procedures for the review of subject matter programs:

1. Technical Assistance – After the Commission adopts a set of new program standards, Commission staff members provide technical assistance to prospective program sponsors wishing to submit responses to the new standards. Technical assistance materials are provided on the Commission’s website. Staff members train, assign, and coordinate review team work.
2. Preconditions Review – After the program proposal is received, Commission staff review the sponsor’s response to the preconditions. The preconditions are based on both state laws and Commission policies, and address minimum unit and content area requirements. If the preconditions response is incomplete, the sponsor is requested to provide specific information necessary for compliance with the preconditions.
3. Program Review – The program sponsor’s responses to the Commission’s subject matter program standards are reviewed by a team of two or more subject matter educators to determine if the program meets the program standards, including the subject matter requirements (SMRs). The SMRs are the content knowledge required to be covered in the program and are aligned to the K-12 content standards that the candidate will be expected to know. The reviewers are trained in the alignment of the standards and subject matter requirements and in the review process before they are assigned proposals to review. Reviewers are instructed to find explicit evidence that programs not only align with K-12 content standards but also introduce their candidates to those standards within the context of their subject matter studies. The team must reach consensus that each standard is met based upon evidence provided in the document. If the program does not meet the standards, the sponsor is given an explanation of the findings. The sponsor may then submit the additional information requested. Once reviewers determine that the program proposal provides a convincing and adequate body of evidence to meet the Commission's adopted subject matter program standards, the program is recommended to the Commission for approval.

4. After subject matter program approval is granted by the Commission, the institution may admit candidates to the approved subject matter program. Graduates of a Commission approved single subject matter preparation program meet the Commission's subject matter requirement and are not required to take the subject matter examination (California Subject Examinations for Teachers).

This report presents one single subject matter program that has been deemed to have met all of the appropriate Standards of Quality and Effectiveness for Single Subject Matter Preparation Programs (www.ctc.ca.gov/educator-prep/STDS-subject-matter.html) by appropriate review panels and is recommended to the Commission for approval. The program brought forward to the Commission for approval at this time is: Vanguard University, Music

Summary Information on the Proposed Single Subject Matter Program

Vanguard University

The Vanguard University's Bachelor of Music in Music Education degree is designed to meet the needs of future music teachers and prepare them for teaching students who attend California public schools. Over the past two and one-half years, the comprehensive curriculum has been redesigned by the music faculty (and approved by Vanguard University) to comply with the Single Subject Matter Preparation program-Music pre-conditions and standards.

The Bachelor of Music in Music Education's comprehensive curriculum includes; music theory and musicianship, music technology, music history, literature and culture, piano proficiency, conducting classes, performance on the prospective music teacher's instrument, secondary instrument classes, and methods coursework, which requires music students to observe model music educators in the local public schools. Selected highlights of the breadth of the curriculum beyond the music core include; Music in Global Cultures, Teaching Music in a Multicultural Setting, Introduction to Jazz Improvisation, Beginning Voice or Guitar Class and Introduction to Music Education. The Introduction to Music Education course sets the foundation for the culminating fieldwork/capstone project, which typically occurs in the prospective teacher's senior year. Under the fieldwork component, students complete a short-term teaching assignment at a local school district. Students are evaluated in the categories of: Instructional Planning, Teaching Practicum, and Self-Reflection. These evaluation categories are aligned with current teacher performance assessments. The Music Department utilizes student learning outcomes and assessment procedures as delineated by Vanguard University and WASC. In addition, each course syllabus provides a table which delineates the University and Music Department student learning outcomes and assessment procedures. The Music Department is currently in the final year of review by the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM).

Recommendations

Based upon a determination by reviewers that the following entity has met all relevant standards and requirements, staff recommends Commission approval of the following subject matter program: Vanguard University: Music.

Proposed Revised Language for Standard 4 of the Preliminary Education Specialist: Visual Impairment Credential Programs: Braille Competency and Braille Literacy Instruction

Introduction

This agenda item presents proposed revised language for the Preliminary Education Specialist: Visual Impairment Credential Program Standards to reflect the recent changes adopted by the Braille Authority of North America (BANA) to implement the use of Unified English Braille (UEB).

Background

In December 2008, the Commission adopted program standards for Preliminary Education Specialist Teaching Credentials, including the specialty area of Visual Impairment. Program standards address aspects of program quality and effectiveness that apply to each type of educator preparation program offered by a program sponsor. Program standards contain statements describing the nature and purpose of each standard and language that details the requirements that all approved programs must meet.

The Braille Authority of North America (BANA) promotes and facilitates the use, teaching, and production of Braille. BANA publishes rules, interprets and renders opinions pertaining to braille in existing forms, and moves the field forward with potential new codes as needs arise, in collaboration with other countries using English braille. At its November 2012 meeting in Louisville, Kentucky, BANA affirmed January 4, 2016 as the date by which the United States will implement the general use of Unified English Braille (UEB). This date represents the birthday of Louis Braille, the man who invented the code named after him.

All braille codes are a system of words, letters, figures, or other symbols substituted for other words and letters. UEB is based on the current literary braille code, English Braille American Edition. UEB was developed to keep the general purpose literary code as its base while allowing for the addition of new symbols, reducing the complexity of rules and allowing for greater accuracy in translation. Letters and numbers will stay the same as they are in the current literary code. There will be some changes to punctuation, but most will remain the same. Some rules for contractions will change. Nine contractions will be eliminated, and some contractions will be used differently. After implementation, the official braille codes for the United States will include Unified English Braille; Nemeth Code for Mathematics and Science Notation, 1972 Revision and published updates; Music Braille Code, 1997; and the International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA) Braille Code, 2008. All of these changes are provided in an overview document entitled The ABCs of UEB found on the Braille Authority of North America (BANA) website at <http://www.brailleauthority.org/ueb.html>.

Curriculum materials must be provided for students in UEB beginning in January 2016. In spring 2016, K-12 students will be tested using UEB transcribed assessments. Many textbooks and other instructional materials have been transcribed using former codes, and these will continue to be used.

Currently two approved educator preparation programs offer the Visual Impairment authorization: San Francisco State University and California State University, Los Angeles. Both of these institutions have already integrated UEB into their teacher preparation programs and both programs require candidates seeking a VI authorization to demonstrate proficiency in the all braille codes appropriate to their content area.

Proposed Revised Language for the Preliminary Education Specialist: Visually Impaired Program Standard 4: Braille Competency and Braille Literacy Instruction

To reflect the adoption of Unified English Braille in January of 2016, Commission staff proposes that the Preliminary Education Specialist: Visual Impairment Standard 4: Braille Competency and Braille Literacy Instruction be revised as follows:

Standard 4: Braille Competency and Braille Literacy Instruction

Each candidate demonstrates proficiency in reading and writing alphabetic and fully contracted braille using a variety of devices such as the braillewriter, slate and stylus, computer-generated translation, and electronic note takers. Each candidate demonstrates proficiency in the Unified English Braille (UEB), Nemeth Braille, and other braille codes including but not limited to music, computer science, chemistry, and world language. ~~basic Nemeth Code for Mathematics and an understanding of advance Nemeth code.~~ The program provides substantive, research-based instruction that effectively prepares each candidate to teach braille literacy and to be prepared to deliver a comprehensive program of systematic instruction aligned to the state adopted English Language Arts Content Standards and the California Braille Standards for Reading and Mathematics. ~~The program provides basic knowledge of the various additional braille codes currently in use such as computer braille code, foreign language codes, and music.~~

Staff Recommendation

Staff recommends that the Commission approve the proposed revisions to the Preliminary Education Specialist: Visual Impairment, Standard 4: Braille Competency and Braille Literacy Instruction as presented above.

Next Steps

If the Commission approves the proposed revised language for Standard 4 of the Preliminary Education Specialist: Visual Impairment, staff will develop and distribute a Program Sponsor Alert to notify the field of this revision. The standards document will be revised and made available on the Commission's website. Updated program documentation would be required of institutions offering this credential program, as appropriate, during its regular accreditation activities.
