Item 1-CALL TO ORDER
The March 2011 meeting of the Committee on Accreditation was called to order by Co-Chair Carol Leighty at 10:03 a.m. on Thursday, March 17, 2011.

Item 2-APPROVAL OF THE AGENDA
Pia Wong moved approval of the March 2011 agenda. Kiran Kumar seconded the motion. The motion passed without dissent.

Item 3-APPROVAL OF THE JANUARY 2011 MINUTES
Joseph Jimenez moved approval of the January 2011 minutes as presented. Pia Wong seconded the motion. The motion passed without dissent.

Item 4-CO-CHAIR AND MEMBER REPORTS
- Joseph Jimenez visited a Mexican History class in the Los Banos Unified School District which is instilling pride in the students of Mexican heritage. The students who have taken the class are doing better in all of their classes. Joseph also offered a St. Patrick’s Day remembrance of his former principal, Geri Murphy.
- Pia Wong announced she has been advocating against the budget cuts in the Sacramento City School District. Her supporters are growing, as the collective feeling is that the districts can no longer make do with anything less than they now have.
- Nancy Watkins discussed the “budgetary attack on the teaching profession” referring to the sentiment that education degrees are being considered as “wasted money by those who have the power to control state education funding. There is concern that teaching programs will be cut and that the policies COA has implemented over the years may be questioned.
- Carol Leighty along with Cheryl Hickey and Teri Clark presented a study session on the accreditation system to the Commission. They received an overwhelmingly positive reaction from the commissioners.

Item 5- STAFF REPORTS
Director, Teri Clark began by announcing Cheryl Hickey’s promotion to Administrator of Accreditation. Administrator, Cheryl Hickey shared the following:
- Teri Clark was named Director of Professional Services in February 2011.
- Administrator Hickey thanked Carol Leighty for assisting in the study session presentation to the Commission.
- Dale Janssen will be retiring as Executive Director of the Commission in December of this year.
- There is no current Commission liaison to the COA at this time. Commission Chair, Ting Sun is working on securing a new liaison.
- The Commission’s fourth annual Learning Conference will be held at the Kona Kai in San Diego April 5th and 6th. The conference theme is The Learning to Teach System Ten Years Later: Lessons Learned, Places to Grow.
- The next BIR training will be held August 14-17 in southern California, possibly San Diego. COA members are welcome to attend.
Director, Teri Clark added the following:

- The application process for the three openings on the COA closed in late February. There are two K-12 openings and one IHE opening. The current nominating panel consists of Edmundo Litton and Barbara Merino (both IHE) and Bill Redford and Karen O’Connor (both K-12). The nominating panel has reviewed the documents and interviews will be held on April 15 by a subcommittee of the Commission.
- Director Clark attended the AACTE conference in San Diego in February which she found very helpful. She also represented the Commission at the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) meeting in Washington D.C. this last Monday.
- Review panels for program assessment reading and Initial Program Review (IPR) reading are being held at the Commission two days each month.
