- Kenneth Lopour announced his engagement. No wedding date had been set at the time of the meeting.
- Reyes Quesada announced that his book, Internationalizing Teacher Preparation has recently been published. A second manuscript has been sent to the publisher and will be coming out in May.
- Anne Jones is now administering education preparation programs for the UC Riverside Extension. She continues to serve as Director of Teacher Education for UC Riverside in addition to her new duties. She also added that UC Riverside is only one step away from being able to offer a minor in Education.
Item 5 - STAFF REPORTS

Director, Teri Clark shared the following:

- Charles Gahagan has been elected Chair of the Commission. Linda Darling-Hammond is the new Vice Chair. Louise Stymeist, one of the new members of the Commission, will be serving as Commission Liaison to the COA beginning in March.
- Mary Sandy has provided Commission staff with a budget update. The Commission took action in November to raise credentialing fees in order to meet the shortfall the Commission has been working under. The Governor’s Budget proposes to eliminate 19 positions from the Commission. It appears that no members of the staff will lose their jobs, but there may be difficulty in hiring replacement staff to cover the vacancies of those who have left the Commission.
- The March 8 meeting of the Commission will be dedicated to strategic planning. A new stakeholder survey will be going out to the field. The results of the survey will be used to form Commission direction.
- The Credential Web Interface Project (CWIP) is still undergoing testing.
- Stakeholder meetings were held in October and November to discuss the Commission discipline process. The meetings have generated possible policy changes in this area.

Administrator Cheryl Hickey provided the following:

- Applications for membership in the COA are available on the COA website.
- Bard College has gone before the Commission three times. To date, they have not received initial institutional approval. The institution will return to the Commission in March and will present what they have done to “make it right” with their students.
- Both Administrator Terry Janicki and Consultant Helen Hawley retired from the Commission in December. Dr. Janicki will continue to assist with site visits through the spring.

Consultant Gay Roby shared the following:

- The Commission is partnering with COA members Gary Kinsey and Deborah Erickson at the California Association of Professors of Educational Administration (CAPEA) conference to discuss Biennial Reports and use of candidate assessment data in administrative services programs.
- An administrative services stakeholder meeting will be held at the Commission on March 6.

Consultant Katie Croy gave an update of the most recent BIR training:

- The BIR training was moved from four to two days by use of on-line modules. Based on what was observed at the meeting and trainee feedback, the next training will be two and a half days. Modules will be made available on-line to benefit those who are facing upcoming accreditation visits.
- The first meeting of the Teacher Assessment Panel (TAP) will be held at the end of February. Interested parties are invited to email either Katie or Gay Roby with items they wish to be included.
