SUBJECT: Title 5 Regulations, California Administrative
Code Sections 80125, 80126, and 80127,
Relating to Administration or Supervision
Credentials

Effective December 3, 1979, old sections 80125, 80126, and 80127 have been repealed and are being replaced with the following new sections 80125, 80126, and 80127:

80125. Designation of Service Requiring Administration or Supervision Credentials.

Pursuant to Education Code Sections 35020, 35028, 44065, and 44860, except for persons initially employed prior to July 1, 1979 and continuously assigned and employed as provided herein, any person who is assigned to perform and who does perform one or more or a portion of any of the functions or services included in (a) through (g) for more than one-half of the hours worked by such person in a school year shall possess a valid, current credential authorizing administration or supervision:

- (a) Selection, assignment, or evaluation of certificated personnel at school, district, or county level.
- (b) Coordination, supervision, and direction of the work of instructors and of the instructional programs at district or county level.
- (c) Coordination, supervision, and direction of staff development for certificated personnel at district or county level.
- (d) Coordination, supervision, and direction of counseling and guidance services at district or county level.
- (e) Coordination, supervision, and direction of certificated personnel providing library services and health services at district or county level.

(f) Coordination, supervision, and direction of those activities connected with the enforcement of the laws relating to compulsory education and child welfare at the district or county level.

(g) Supervision and direction of testing and research connected with the evaluation and effectiveness of the instructional programs at school, district, or county level.

Educational evaluators may be employed as classified employees on either a full or part-time basis to perform the functions of program evaluation and research. Such persons need not have teaching or administrative services credentials so long as no functions for which certification qualifications are required are performed but shall be responsible to a credentialed administrator.

80126. Designation of Services Requiring Pupil Personnel Services, Administration or Supervision Authorization.

Pursuant to Education Code Sections 35020, 35300, and 44065, except for persons initially employed prior to July 1, 1979 and continuously assigned and employed as provided herein, any person who is assigned to perform and who does perform one or more or a portion of any of the functions or services included in (a) through (d) for more than one-half of the hours worked by such person in a school year shall possess a valid current pupil personnel services credential or a credential authorizing administration or supervision:

(a) Coordination, supervision, and direction of counseling and guidance services.

(b) Coordination, supervision, and direction of the interpretation or results of state and district testing programs.

(c) Coordination, supervision, and direction of activities connected with the enforcement of the laws relating to compulsory education and child welfare.

(d) Coordination and supervision of student co-curricular programs.

80127. Designation of Services Requiring Teaching, Administration or Supervision Credential.

Pursuant to Education Code Sections 35020 and 44065, except for persons initially employed prior to July 1, 1979 and continuously assigned and employed as provided herein, any person who is assigned to perform and who does perform under supervision of a principal one or more or a portion of any of the functions or services included in (a) through (e) for more than one-half of the hours worked by such person in a school year shall possess a valid, current basic teaching credential as defined in Section 80001 (b) or a credential authorizing administration or supervision:

- (a) Coordination and supervision of the work of instructors and instructional programs.
- (b) Coordination and/or conducting staff development for certificated personnel.
- (c) Coordination of the preparation, selection, collection, classification, or demonstration of instructional materials.
- (d) Coordination of the research and evaluation of the effectiveness of the instructional programs.
- (e) Coordination of the evaluation of academic achievement of pupils.
- (f) Coordination and supervision of student co-curricular programs.
