

CTC - CDE – CCSESA - CPEC
Co-Sponsors

Working Collaboratively for Teacher & Student Success – Implications of New State & Federal Laws for Teachers, Administrators & Teacher Preparers in California

June 23, 2010
9:00 a.m. – 3:15 p.m.
Double Tree Hotel, San Jose

Description

This one day meeting looks at implications of recent federal and California legislation for teachers, administrators and teacher educators. The link between student outcomes and teacher quality is being redefined and new approaches will be required. We will examine how local delivery systems must change to address challenges posed, with a specific focus on how collaborative work across sectors can lead to effective pathways for teacher and student success.

Morning Sessions

Welcome

Dale Janssen, Executive Director
Commission on Teacher Credentialing

Looking at New Legislation & Federal Initiatives

Jack O'Connell, Superintendent of Public Instruction
California Department of Education

How It Looks From Here – Views on Reform Panel

Statewide Perspectives – Lupita Alcala, Deputy Superintendent, CDE

District Perspectives – Mike Hanson, Superintendent, Fresno USD

Teacher Preparation Perspectives – Judith Warren Little, Professor, UC Berkeley

BREAK

Table Discussion & Q &A with Panelists

LUNCH

Afternoon Sessions

Breakout Sessions

- Moving toward data-driven instruction – developing experiences that work for pre-service/interns, induction and professional development
- Creating new teacher evaluation systems and new definitions of effectiveness
- Developing field experiences that maximize novice teacher practices
- Examining how teacher preparation curriculum can align with local district instructional goals
- Building collaborations across the LTTS for English learner success
- Collaborating for teacher quality among teacher preparation programs – the federal Teacher Quality Initiative (TQI)

BREAK & Team Time

Breakout Sessions Repeated

Closing Remarks

Collaboration and School Reform – Observations on What Works

Margaret Fortune, Director, Fortune School of Education & CSU Trustee