2D: Chair’s Report
Chair Darling-Hammond discussed ways of creating context for high quality teaching and learning for all teachers and students in our state and spoke about the importance of having a strong ethical education and a strong ethical standard for our children.

2E: Executive Director’s Report
Executive Director Mary Sandy welcomed Superintendent Torlakson and new Commission member Kathleen Allavie to the Commission table.

Executive Director Sandy reported on the Commission’s grant-funded programs and the release of Request for Proposals (RFPs) for the Teacher Residency Capacity Grants, Teacher Residency Expansion Grants and Local Solutions to the Shortage of Special Education Teachers Grants.

2F: Commission Member Reports
Superintendent Tolarkson spoke about the work accomplished by the California Department of Education (CDE) and reflected on the partnership and collaboration between the CDE and the Commission in developing systems of support for improving educator quality.
Commissioner Barnes reported that the California Association of School Counselors’ fall conference will be held on October 17-19, 2018 in Riverside.

Commissioner Grenot-Scheyer reported that the inaugural meeting of the California Alliance on Inclusive Schooling will take place during the California Council on Teacher Education’s fall conference.

Commissioner Martinez notified the public that the XQ Institute put out a comprehensive guide to understand what state policymakers can do to ensure that every high school better prepares students for the workforce.

Commissioner Rodriguez shared her excitement on teaching the 10th grade.

Commissioner Escobedo reported that she participated in a mentor orientation for Butte County Office of Education’s induction program.

2G: Liaison Reports
Commissioner Barnes reported on her attendance at the Pupil Personnel Services workgroup meeting.

Commissioner Browne raised concerns about facilitating teacher preparation from community colleges into the four year universities. She talked about the teacher internship program that was supported by the Skyline College President’s Innovation Fund and Chancellor’s Strong Workforce Program fund. She stated that the work that’s been done with Getting Down to Facts II identifies that early learning is alive and well in the community colleges.

Autumn Sannwald, Commission Student Liaison, thanked the Commission for giving her the opportunity to serve as the Liaison for the past year.

Educator Preparation Committee
Committee Chair José Gonzalez convened the Educator Preparation Committee.

3A: Annual Report Card on California Teacher Preparation Programs for the Academic Year 2016-17 as Required by Title II of the Higher Education Act
Marjorie Suckow, Consultant, and Phi Phi Lau, Research Program Specialist, Professional Services Division, presented this item which provided the Annual Report Card on California Teacher Preparation Programs for the Academic Year 2016-17 as required by Title II of the Higher Education Act.

Naomi Eason, California School Boards Association, submitted a letter which raised concerns regarding the ethnic distribution of teacher candidates and questioned whether the Commission anticipates a continuing increase in candidate enrollment. The letter also thanked the Commission for addressing the minimum student teaching hour requirement and putting an emphasis on increasing the number of credentials issued in the areas of math, science and special education.
Rigel Massaro, Public Advocates, raised concerns about the enrollment changes of African American candidates and asked a clarifying question about the difference in the enrolled candidates versus the completers. She also raised concerns regarding relying on paraprofessional teachers addressing teacher shortage areas and requested the Commission to look into the issues of whether the alternative route is the best it can be to ensure candidates are prepared and supported to meet the needs of their students.

Lyn Scott, California Association for Bilingual Teacher Education, raised concerns regarding the lack of diversity in the teaching workforce and requested the Commission work affirmatively to remove the barriers in recruiting and retaining bilingual teachers.

Commissioner Martinez moved to approve the 2016-2017 Annual Report Card on California Teacher Preparation Programs for transmission to the U.S. Department of Education on or before October 31, 2018. Commissioner Marks seconded the motion. The motion carried without dissent.

3B: Discussion of the Subject Matter Requirements for Teaching Credentials
Teri Clark, Director and Phyllis Jacobson, Administrator, Professional Services Division, presented this item which provided information on California’s statutory subject matter requirements for preliminary teaching credentials and discusses options for reviewing this system.

Rigel Massaro, Public Advocates, stated that reconsidering how we look at subject matter competence could be a critical tool to increasing the diversity of the teaching profession. She also spoke about how standardized tests, including the subject matter tests, are problematic for individuals with test anxiety and the disproportionate pass rates for people of color are well documented. She requested the Commission to think about whether there is any room for performance assessment in this area.

Jessica Sawko, California Science Teachers Association, raised concerns regarding the limitation of the California Subject Matter Examinations for Teachers (CSET) in terms of its ability to truly assess the understanding of the three dimensions of the next generation of science standards and requested the Commission to look at the connections between standards and subject matter requirements (SMRs) to ensure teachers are prepared to teach college and career readiness standards.

Barbara Howard, Center for Teacher Innovation-Riverside County Office of Education, talked about the perceived obstacles of the CSET.

Janet Davis, California Federation of Teachers, talked about the difficulty of passing the test and asked the Commission to consider other options to qualify candidates through different measures.

Lyn Scott, California Association for Bilingual Teacher Education, spoke about the importance of alignment and suggested the Commission to think about the possibility of having additional means of verifying subject matter competency.
3C: Update on the Development of the California Administrator Performance Assessment
Amy Reising, Director of Performance Assessment Development, presented this item which provided an update on the efforts to develop the California Administrator Performance Assessment (CalAPA).

Naomi Eason, California School Boards Association, submitted a letter which supported the decision to make 2018-19 a nonconsequential year of administration to ensure programs are not only able to provide sustainable field placements for candidates to complete all three cycles, but also able to identify effective strategies for supporting candidates who are currently serving as teachers or those in positions outside of the classroom.

Peg Winkelman, California Association of Professors of Education Administration, asked the Commission about the possibility of reconvening the design team beyond standard setting to consider feedback from this nonconsequential year.

Ivanna Soto, California Association for Bilingual Teacher Education, voiced appreciation of the equity focus in cycle one and requested the equity piece be built upon in cycle three. She also raised concerns regarding the abilities of leaders and administrators to work with teachers who serve English learners and to lead bilingual schools.

John Borba, California State University Stanislaus, stated that it is important to continue to refine the CalAPA for the consequential year and raised concerns regarding the lack of clarity in cycles one and two. He asked the Commission to collect more data on cycles one and two to fine tune the CalAPA.

3D: Update on Creating a Work Group to Explore Solutions Surrounding Career Technical Education Issues
Jake Shuler and Bob Loux, Consultants, Professional Services Division, presented this item which provided an update on the progress of Commission staff in their work with WestEd and staff from the California Department of Education to develop a plan for a work group to explore solutions surrounding Career Technical Education.

Janis Davis, California Federation of Teachers, spoke on this item.

Danette Brown, California Teachers Association, requested the Commission to include educators from a variety of industry sectors in the selection process to address the challenges that are unique to individual industry sectors.
