Annual Update on the Accreditation Data System

Executive Summary: This agenda item provides an update on the Commission's implementation of the Accreditation Data System (ADS).

Recommended Action: For information only

Presenters: Cheyenne Jones, Analyst, Erin Sullivan and Cara Mendoza, Administrators, Professional Services Division

Strategic Plan Goal

II. Program Quality and Accountability

- b) Effectively and efficiently monitor program implementation and outcomes, hold all approved educator preparation programs to high standards and require continuous improvement through the accreditation process.

Annual Update on the Accreditation Data System

Introduction

This agenda item provides an update on the Commission on Teacher Credentialing (Commission) Accreditation Data System (ADS) and describes the Accreditation Data Dashboards that became available to institutions on October 26, 2020.

Background

The Commission's accreditation system requires Commission-approved institutions to submit data on their approved educator preparation programs through the ADS. Institutions submit information on their approved programs by level, pathway, and delivery method. The program data includes information on current year candidates and continuing candidates. They also provide information on admission standards, program requirements, and candidate demographics.

Beginning January 31, 2020 through May 15, 2020 institutions were asked to create user accounts, update contact information, and create their set of program reports. The program reports were due to the Commission by August 31, 2020. Institutions unable to submit by the due date due to COVID had the ability to request an extension and submit after August 31, 2020. As of October 29, 2020, all institutions submitted data for the 2019-20 reporting year. Below is a chart showing the number of program sponsors by segment and the status of the reports. A total of 246 approved program sponsors submitted data and 1,438 program reports were created for the 2019-20 reporting year.

Enrollment in Educator Preparation Programs 2019-20

The ADS allows the Commission to collect data on enrollment in Commission-approved educator preparation programs. This includes the number of newly enrolled candidates who began the program during the reporting year (2019-20). The newly enrolled candidate information is sorted by credential program and segment as shown in Table 1a below.

Institutions are also asked to provide the number of continuing candidates, which are defined as enrolled candidates who began the preparation program prior to the reporting year and are still enrolled during the reporting year. Continuing candidate enrollment information is sorted by credential program and segment as shown in Table 1b below.

Totals	12,408	1,857	18,257	13,458	45,980

Enrollment numbers are self-reported by each institution and determined by combining the count of newly enrolled and continuing candidates. In 2019-20 there were 47,418 new candidates and 45,980 continuing candidates. The total number of enrolled candidates across all types of educator preparation programs was 93,398 for the 2019-20 reporting year as shown in Table 1c below. For comparison purposes, the 2018-19 ADS report showed a total of 86,294 candidates enrolled in educator preparation programs. In 2018-19 there were 46,110 new candidates and 40,184 continuing candidates. Beginning with the 2019-20 reporting year, the ADS was updated to allow institutions to report on a dual or blended preparation program when an institution identifies their Commission-approved educator preparation programs in a dual or blended way. All candidates enrolled in the dual program are concurrently earning the two identified credentials or authorizations. In the prior 2018-19 reporting year, candidates earning two credentials at the same time were counted twice, once by each program.

Institutions are also asked to provide the number of candidates in the prior academic year who completed the specific program within the expected length of time. The expected length of time would be dependent upon the program design. Program completer information is sorted by segment as shown in Table 1e below.

Table 1e: Number of Program Completers in the Prior Academic Year 2018-19

In 2018-19 programs reported that 34,014 (79.5%) candidates completed the program on time, 5,835 (13.6%) within one year of the expected time, and 2,927 (6.8%) candidates completed more than one year beyond the expected time. For comparison purposes, in 2017-18 programs reported that 29,846 (84%) candidates completed the program on time, 3,979 (11%) within one year of the expected time, and 1,620 (5%) candidates completed more than one year beyond the expected time.

The remainder of this report focuses on preliminary teacher preparation programs only: Multiple Subject, Single Subject, and Education Specialist, 2019-20.

Preliminary Teacher Preparation Programs: Undergraduate or Postgraduate

Although 246 institutions sponsor Commission-approved educator preparation programs, only 109 of the institutions offer one or more preliminary teacher preparation programs. In the CSU, 23 campuses sponsor preliminary teacher preparation programs as do nine UC campuses. For the private colleges or universities 51 are approved to offer preliminary teacher preparation programs as are 15 different local education agencies. Table 2a below provides data on the number of institutions in each segment that sponsor each type of preliminary teacher preparation program.

Table 2a: Number of Institutions that Sponsor Preliminary Teacher Preparation Programs, by Segment

Credential Program	CSU	UC	Private	LEA	Totals
Multiple Subject	23	9	51	10	93
Single Subject	22	9	47	9	87
Education Specialist	22	3	33	15	73

The ADS also includes data on how Commission-approved programs are delivered locally. Table 2b displays the number of institutions that offer an undergraduate and/or a postgraduate preliminary teacher preparation program. An institution may offer credential programs at either level or both.

Table 2b: Undergraduate or Post Graduate Preliminary Teacher Preparation Programs

Credential Program	Level	CSU	UC	Private	LEA	Total Programs
Multiple Subject	Undergraduate	6	0	16	-	22

Education Specialist	Undergraduate	4	0	9	-	13
Education Specialist	Post-Graduate	22	3	31	15	71

The ADS also includes data on the manner in which clinical practice is delivered in local programs. Table 2c displays the number of institutions that offer the program through a student teaching or intern pathway. Within student teaching, the institution has the ability to identify if the student teaching experience is a more traditional model of student teaching, a co-teaching model, a residency model, or a cohort specifically designed for candidates teaching in private schools (but seeking a California credential). Institutions often offer more than one clinical practice model.

All intern programs must provide an Early Completion Option (ECO) to candidates that meet the criteria. The number in Table 2c above for ECO indicates the number of programs that had candidates enrolled in this pathway during the 2019-20 year. Staff will provide technical assistance on this area of reporting for the 2020-21 year.*

Programs by Type of Delivery Model, by Segment

The ADS also includes data on how coursework is delivered in local programs. Coursework may be delivered entirely in a face-to-face model, entirely in an online model, or in a combination of the face-to-face and online models. Table 2d below displays the number of institutions that offer a face-to-face, online, or a combination teaching program. One institution may offer more than one coursework delivery method.

Table 2d: Preliminary Teacher Preparation Programs by Type of Delivery Model

Credential Program	Type	CSU	UC	Private	LEAs	Total
Multiple Subject	Combination	7	3	21	6	37

Programs submit important contextual information about each model and pathway which will allow the Commission to summarize information that has not been easily accessible in the past. For instance, institutions submit through ADS information on how many units are required for the program and the length of the program for a full-time candidate. Because these data requirements are new to institutions, Commission staff is reviewing the data and contacting institutions for which the data does not appear to be accurate. In future reports, staff will summarize this information at a statewide level and by segment for each type of program. Other types of information provided through ADS are summarized below.

Candidate Demographics, Preliminary Programs – Gender Identity

The ADS also requires that institutions provide demographic data on their candidates. Table 3a displays the number of new candidates who identified as female, male, or non-binary. Pursuant to Senate Bill 179, (Chap. 853, Stats. 2018) the Gender Recognition Act, individuals have the ability to identify female, male, non-binary or decline to state. Institutions were advised that if their institution does not have this information for 2019-20 reporting year, to enter zero for the missing data. The information for the 97 institutions that submitted this data is in the chart below.

Table 3a: Preliminary Teacher Preparation Programs, Gender Identity

Credential Program	Decline to State	Female	Male	Nonbinary
Multiple Subject	1%	82%	17%	0%
Single Subject	1%	54%	45%	0%
Education Specialist	2%	74%	24%	0%

Candidate Demographics, Race and Ethnicity-Preliminary Programs

The ADS also requires institutions to submit data on the ethnicity of the candidates enrolled in programs. Below, Table 3b provides the percentage of newly enrolled candidates by race and ethnicity and, for comparison purposes, also provides the K-12 student population data for California for 2019-20. As with gender identity, candidates may decline to state their race and ethnicity.

Required Minimum Grade Point Average (GPA) for Admission for Preliminary Teacher Preparation Candidates

Although minimum GPA is not a Commission requirement, institutions are asked to provide the minimum GPA for admission into their Commission-approved teacher preparation programs. Some institutions do not report a required minimum GPA. For the required minimum GPAs that were reported, the segment averages were the same across the three types of preliminary programs and are presented below:

- CSU -- 2.67
- UC -- 3.00
- Private Colleges and Universities -- 2.80
- LEAs -- 2.75

Mean GPA of Enrolled Candidates at Program Entry by Credential Program and Segment

Institutions are asked to provide the mean GPA of enrolled candidates at program entry for their approved preliminary preparation programs. Table 4a includes the range of mean GPAs for the 2019-20 entering cohort (new enrollees accepted into the program), while Table 4b includes the actual mean GPAs for the newly enrolled candidates in 2019-20.

Additional Admission Requirements

Some preliminary preparation programs require applicants to satisfy the basic skills requirement at admission and others also require applicants to satisfy subject matter requirements at admission. Tables 5a and 5b below provide that information by segment and credential type.

Table 5a: Number of Institutions that Require Candidates to Satisfy the Basic Skills Requirements at Admission

Average Required Hours of Clinical Practice for Preliminary Multiple Subject/Single Subject/Education Specialist Programs, by Segment

Institutions are asked to provide the number of clinical practice hours required for each program offered. The questions include the total number of clinical practice hours in the program, the number of independent student teaching hours, as well as the number of field work hours that interns are required to complete prior to becoming an intern. The average number of hours of clinical practice reported for all preliminary programs for reporting year 2019-20 at the CSU is 669 hours. The average hours of clinical practice reported for all preliminary programs at the UC campuses is 669 hours. The average hours of clinical practice reported for all preliminary programs for the 50 private and independent universities that sponsor teacher preparation is 667 hours.

Efforts to Refine and Improve the ADS

Commission staff is working with program personnel to gather feedback about the ease and use of the ADS. Staff is working with technical staff to improve the functionality of the system, to clarify definitions to enhance consistency in reporting, and identify other areas for improvement. Staff has adjusted the timeline and changed deadlines for the next reporting system so that some of these new improvements may be implemented before institutions begin creating their reporting decks for the 2020-21 reporting period.

Important Dates for the 2020-21 ADS

The following dates guide the next year's reporting cycle for the ADS.

- March 1, 2021: ADS opens for the academic year. Institutions review, update, and create additional user accounts, if needed, and update institutional contact information. Institutions create the program reports by identifying how the Commission-approved programs are offered by the institution.
- May 31, 2021: All program reports must be created.
- June 1-August 31, 2021: Institutions enter data in the program reports for the 2020-21 academic year, complete data for the 2019-20 academic year, and submit the reports to the institution's Unit Head.
- September 15, 2021: Unit Head must submit all reports to the Commission.

The May 31 and September 15 dates are hard deadlines. Institutions that fail to meet the deadline will be reported as having missed a required accreditation submission to the Committee on Accreditation. The 2020-21 timeline of events are displayed on the ADS webpage. ADS office hours, which are dedicated times when staff is available to any institution with questions or needing technical assistance, will continue for the 2020-21 year and be featured weekly in the PSD e-News.

Accreditation Data Dashboards and the Use of the ADS Data for Accreditation

During the summer of 2019, the Professional Services data team developed the Accreditation Data Dashboard (ADD) with frequent feedback from the accreditation staff. The ADD was piloted during the 2019-20 site visits. The ADD became available to institutions on October 26, 2020. The ADD provides the following institution data and information:

1. Landing Page and Institution Overview (page 15)
2. Accreditation status, location, and contact information
3. Educator preparation programs and/or subject matter preparation programs offered
4. Annual data submitted by the institution through the ADS system (pages 16-21)
5. Annual Report Card (Title II) data
6. Pass rates for assessments (i.e., RICA, TPA) (pages 22-23)
7. Program completer, master teacher, and employer survey results (page 24)
8. Five-year trend of credential data (pages 25-26)

The Appendix to this item has screen shots from the ADD and staff will share information orally with the Commission. All Commission-approved institutions have access to the ADD through their ADS accounts. Information on how to access the Accreditation Data Dashboards is provided in the Overview of the Accreditation Data Dashboards guide posted on the Accreditation page.

Next Steps

Based on the information presented in this item and the Commission’s discussion, staff will continue to work to improve the ADD and support institutions in the use of the ADS for the 2020-21 academic year.

Select Academic Year

The tables and figures below provides information on the number of programs that were active for reporting in the selected academic year, the status of the reports, and the number of programs reported by level and delivery method.

How many programs were required to be reported in 2019-20?

Institutions are required to submit data for active and inactive programs, as well as, programs that become withdrawn or expired during the reporting period in 2019-20. Data submission is not required for programs that have been withdrawn or expired prior to the reporting period.

Credential Program	Program Status
	Active	Withdrawn

Single Subject	1
Grand Total	6	1

What is the report status of the required programs in 2019-20?

The report status indicates the institution's progress toward submission of the data. A report is counted by the combination of the selected level, pathway and delivery method of a program created in 2019-20.

Credential Program	Report Status
Added Authorization: Autism Spectrum Disorders	1

What is the number and percentage of programs reported by level in 2019-20?

The figure below displays the number of program reported by level. There are two types of level that are available to be reported: undergraduate or postgraduate.

What is the number and percentage of programs reported by delivery method in 2019-20?

The figure below displays the number of program reported by delivery method. There are three types of delivery methods that are available to be reported: face to face, online or combination.

The main goal of the surveys is to inform program improvements at the institution. Surveys provide a wealth of information that can assist accreditation site visit teams in reviewing alongside documentary evidence and interviews. A high response rate that is also very positive about a program could result in the need for fewer program completers, master teachers, or employers to be interviewed during an accreditation site visit. Specifically, individual interviews at a site visit for some institutions may be substantially lower than for others and those of the past visits.

The preliminary program, induction program and Other Educator surveys were available to program completers who were recommended for a credential between September 1 to August 31. The Master Teacher survey is administered between September 1 and August 31 annually. The Employer survey is opened from October to December annually. All survey results are provided annually in the fall. Programs that have 10 or more candidate responses will receive an individual program report. The rule of 10 or more candidate responses do not apply to the Master Teacher and Employer surveys.
