

Report of Program Change of Status January 2023

Overview

This report is divided into two parts: Part 1 includes items for action by the COA which include requests to withdraw (including automatic withdrawals), requests to reactivate inactive programs and requests to add a new single subject content area.

Part 2 provides information on programs that have transitioned to revised program standards and programs that have elected to change to “inactive” status. These items are for notification and require no action by the COA.

Staff Recommendation

That the Committee on Accreditation (A) take action to withdraw the following preparation programs as requested by the institution, and (B) take action to reactivate the program as requested, (C) adding a new single subject content area (D) be notified of the transition of programs, (E) and be informed of programs requesting to move to inactive status.

Part 1

The following items call for action by the Committee on Accreditation:

A. Recommendation about the Withdrawal of Professional Preparation Programs

Withdrawal of the following programs has been requested by the institutions offering them. The date of withdrawal will be the date of the COA’s action or, if requested, up to 6 months after the date the COA is notified of withdrawal.

When an institution withdraws an educator preparation program the institution must wait a minimum of one year before the institution may request re-accreditation of the program (Accreditation Handbook, Chapter 3.)

Automatic Withdrawal for Programs of Professional Preparation

Programs which have met or exceeded the maximum five year period allowable by the accreditation system are automatically withdrawn.

No automatic withdrawals at this time.

B. Professional Preparation Programs Requesting Reactivation

When an approved program has requested an Inactive status, the program must return to the COA to request to be Reactivated.

Chapter 3 of the Accreditation Handbook states:

An inactive program may be re-activated only when the institution submits a request to the COA and the COA has taken action to reactive the program. If the program standards under which the program was approved have been modified, the institution or program sponsor must address the updated standards before the program may be re-activated.

No programs requesting reactivation at this time.

C. Adding a New Content Area to an Existing Program

Institutions that have already been approved to offer one or more Single Subject credential programs may apply to offer a new single subject content area by submitting a course matrix and short narrative that describes how the institution will prepare their candidates to meet the Teaching Performance Expectations (TPEs) and specific pedagogical competencies for the new content area.

The following institutions have requested to add a new single subject content area. Staff has reviewed the requested documentation to ensure that the program modifications address all required competencies.
